A most cordial invitation is extended to all to worship in this church and to study with us the important subjects considered at our various meetings.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

—Sunday promises to be a day to be remembered by the lovers of sacred music. At the morning service Mrs. Macie Fithian, the beloved lyric soprano of Paris, will sing the beautiful song with which she charmed the memorial meeting of the Woman's Club. The name of the number is "Vale of Farewell." At the evening service Miss Mary Dan Harbeson will sing. Miss Harbeson has delighted vast audiences all over the South, from Texas to Virginia, with her singing of the old Gospel songs at the evangelistic meetings held by Dr. Frank Fincher. The mention of her name fills with anticipation the hearts of many musical friends in Paris. Also at the evening service the quartette of the Presbyterian church, than which there is no better in this part of the country, will sing as usual Mr. Harbeson, the tenor of this quartette, is a brother to Miss Harbeson. Mrs. Fithian is the soprano, Miss Flora Hill, the alto, and Mr. Charlie Mitchell, the bass. Sunday evening promises to be a great treat. The subject Sunday morning is "Spiritual Illiterates." Sunday evening Rev. T. S. Smylie, the pastor, will preach especially for young people. The subject will be, "Why I Am Glad I Am Young." All who are young, either in years or in spirit, are es-

TWO CARS STOLEN

A big touring car belonging to Harry Baldwin, of Paris, was stolen in Lexington, Friday night, while Mr. Baldwin was attending the Kellums revival at the Christian church. The theft was reported to the Lexington police department. The car was found the next day abandoned on the Lexington and Paris road, some distance out of Lexington, and restored to its owner.

The police of surrounding towns have been instructed to keep a lookout for a Haynes five-passenger car, 1922 model, license number 44,425, painted green, stolen from the home of its owner, George W. Clay, of Paris, Tuesday night. Two men and a woman, in a car answering the general description of the stolen car, stopped at a local garage at an early hour Wednesday morning, and after taking on a supply of oil and gasoline, departed in the direction of Lexington.

DEMOCRATS WIN STATE ELECTION

Democrats Successful in City, County And State Will Control Assembly

NO OPPOSITION IN COUNTY

The election in Bourbon county Tuesday was unique from the fact that only the names of the candidates on the Democratic ticket were on the official ballot. Due to the neglect of the Republican candidates to file their election certificates with the County Clerk within the specified time, their names did not appear on the official ballot, and, although the Republican ticket with the names of the offices and blank spaces for writing in the names of the candidates was on the ballot, few took advantage of the privilege to vote. The total vote was probably the lightest ever cast in the county. The two amendments to the State Constitution carried by a large vote. The election was an unusually quiet one, due to the lack of opposition, and many stay-at-home votes cut down the Democratic majority. The successful candidates were as follows:

Circuit Judge, Robert L. Stout, incumbent; Commonwealth's Attorney, Victor A. Bradley, incumbent; Senator, Henry S. Caywood, succeeding George Hon.; Representative, Jas. H. Thompson, incumbent; Circuit Clerk, Wm. H. Webb, incumbent; County Judge, Geo. Batterson, incumbent; County Attorney, D. D. Cline, incumbent; County Clerk, Pearce Patton, incumbent; Sheriff, M. Peale Collier, succeeding Wm. G. McClintock; Tax Commissioner, Ben Woodford, Jr., with Mrs. Walter Clark as deputy, succeeding Mrs. Walter Clark; Jailor, Jas. E. Taylor, succeeding Thos. Taul; Coroner, Rudolph Davis, incumbent; Magistrates—Frank Lowry, Paris; E. B. Thomason, Millersburg; R. H. Burris, Flat Rock; Jno. S. Talbot, North Middletown; A. L. Stephenson, Clintonville; John Bell, Hatcher; John N. Shropshire, Centerville, and R. O. Turner, Ruddle Mills.

The new City Board of Education, elected Tuesday, is composed of John F. Davis, Dr. Raymond McMillan, A. B. Hancock, J. Sims Wilson, S. S. Ardery, Jr., and Buckner Woodford. The new members of the County Board of Education are George Linn and Ernest Darnaby.

The outstanding case of Statewide Democratic victory was in Kentucky, where that party regained control of the Legislature, which has been Republican for two years. In Maryland, where the entire lower house was elected, with 27 members of the Senate Democratic, control was increased.

Both Houses of the Kentucky State Legislature will be organized by the Democrats at the session which will open next January, according to unofficial returns received from the Thirty-fourth Senatorial district, in which control of the State Senate hinged.

Unofficial returns compiled Wednesday give the Democrats twenty members of the State Senate to eighteen for Republicans, and 67 members of the House to 33 Republicans. In the 1920 Legislature, the Senate was tied, each side having 19 members, while the House had 55 Republicans and 45 Democrats.

That the spirit of Democracy is still militant was the conclusion drawn by Cordell Hull, recently elected chairman of the Democratic National Committee, from the results of Tuesday's election.

In Mr. Hull's opinion, the result of greatest importance to Democracy was that in Kentucky, while New York City elected a Democrat as Mayor by a majority as large as it gave President Harding a year ago; Syracuse elected a Democratic Mayor for the first time in a quarter of a century, and other cities in several States showed a strong trend toward Democracy.

RUNAWAY WRECKS BUGGY

A buggy belonging to Gertrude Renick, colored, was demolished Wednesday morning when the vehicle collided with the wheels of a wagon driven by J. W. Campbell. The vehicles met on the Houston Avenue bridge. The Renick woman jumped from the buggy just before it turned over, and escaped with slight injuries. The horse ran away, but was stopped near Second street.

Tanlac, the celebrated medicine, is now sold by People's Pharmacy.

PARADE FEATURE ARMISTICE DAY

Annual Recurrence of Memorial Day To Be Celebrated Here In Appropriate Way

PROGRAM AND LINE OF MARCH

To-day is the day of days, Armistice Day. In millions of homes in this broad land from which the young men of America went forth to play their part in the great struggle it will be observed with deep emotion; here in proud and loving memory of one who gave the last and greatest gift, his life, to his country; there in thanksgiving for a son, brother, husband, or father, spared by the truce of Armistice Day to return again to his family and to the ways of peace. The Stars and Stripes should fly everywhere in Paris today. They should be hung out today to remind us, prone as we are to forget—of all the courage and all the sacrifice and all the devotion to duty that those flags with their stars of blue or gold symbolized.

To-day the great day will be appropriately celebrated with a parade and other exercises. Mayor January has issued a proclamation asking the business houses to close during the hours of the parade. The same request has been made by Commander William Collins, representing Bourbon Post, American Legion.

The order of march for the big parade this morning will be as follows:

Buglers; Parade Marshal; Veterans of Union and Confederate Armies; Band; American Legion in Uniform; Captain Wm. Collins Commanding; American Legion Float; War Mothers' Float; War Mothers in Machines; Red Cross Float; Y. M. C. A. Float; K. of C. Float; Community Service Float; D. A. R. Float; U. D. C. Float; Detachment of Civil War Veterans; Spanish American War Veterans; Commercial Club Float; Health and Welfare League Float; Community Service Float; Millersburg Military Institute Cadets; Boys' Band; Boy Scouts.

The parade will form at the city school this morning at 9:30 o'clock. It will proceed along Henderson street to Eighth street, down Eighth street to High street, along High street to Tenth street, on Tenth to Main, down Main street to Second street, by Second to Pleasant street and up Pleasant street to Eighth, out Eighth street to Henderson, down Henderson to the City School, where it will disband for the program to be held in the auditorium of the City School.

A ten dollar prize is being offered for the best float. Professor Lee Kirkpatrick, Mr. E. H. Goresy and Rev. W. E. Ellis will be the judges. The prize will be awarded at the High School Auditorium during the program after the parade.

Friday will be the day of Old Glory. Patriotic citizens will hang out their flags in evidence of their love for the principles for which the Stars and Stripes stand. With all of the store windows decorated, and with the merchants hanging out their flags and bunting in front of their place of business Main street should take on an air of festivity reminiscent of the days of the armistice.

Mrs. Nellie Highland is offering a generous prize of $10 for the best float in the Armistice parade.

FIRE WRECKS BUS.

A large bus belonging to the Fuhrman Transfer Co. was practically destroyed when it caught fire from "backfiring" of the engine on the Ruddle Mills pike near Paris. The Paris fire department was called and after using all their chemical extinguishers, pulled the burning machine to the fire hydrant on the Maysville pike near the city limits, where the fire was extinguished. The machine was afterward towed to a local garage for repairs.

A tenant house on the farm of John D. Booth, on the Jacktown pike, occupied by Wm. Lindsay and family was destroyed by fire of unknown origin. The Lindsay family lost all their household effects and furniture. The loss is partly covered by insurance.

DRUGLESS HEALERS THINK DR. BALDWIN'S STAND O. K.

Chiropractors, Osteopaths and Christian Science practitioners are in hearty accord with the charge of Dr. J. F. Baldwin that too many drugs are used in treatment of disease. Dr. Baldwin made the statement in an address before the Ohio State Medical Association at Toledo.

Healers of schools other than medical say they obtain high percentages of cures without the use of any drugs. They operate through the muscular or nervous systems or the minds of patients.

Dr. Baldwin declared that most physicians use too many drugs and that in many cases diseases would be cured just as soon, or possibly sooner, if allowed to take their natural course. He did not advocate the entire elimination of medicine, but the use of less medicine.

Dr. J. H. J. Upham, mentioned by Dr. Baldwin as having blocked publication of his address, called the assertions a combination of truth, half truth and untruth.

The Committee of reference which considered Dr. Baldwin's address and recommended that it be not published in the State Association's magazine was appointed by Dr. Upham. The State Association's Council also recommended that it be not published because of the misinterpretation persons outside the medical profession might place upon it, Dr. Upham said. He (Dr. Upham) was not a member of the council, but speaking before it, advised against publication.

Other physicians indicated a conviction that Dr. Baldwin's comments would be taken in the wrong way by persons not familiar with modern medical practice.

"I agree with Dr. Baldwin," said R. L. Shook, chiropractor. "I use no drugs at all, and am having successful results in a wide variety of cases."

"I have known for some time of Dr. Baldwin's stand on the matter," said Charles E. Clark, chiropractor. "Osteopaths and Christian Science adherents yesterday expressed the opinions long ago recognized by them."

Dr. Baldwin warned physicians and surgeons, to whom he sent copies of his address, against permitting it to get into the hands of cults other than medical.—Columbus, O. Journal, Oct. 1.

S. O. S. FOR CANE RIDGE CHURCH

Committee Issues Appeal For Funds To Preserve Historic Old Christian Church

READ, PONDER, CONTRIBUTE

It will be a source of delight to many to know that a movement is on foot to preserve the historic old Cane Ridge church. Here is the scene of the labors of Barton W. Stone, whose work antedates the Campbells in Western Pennsylvania far by several years.

The old Brush Run church, which was the house built by Thomas and Alexander Campbell, was converted into a blacksmith shop, and only in recent years has been restored and removed to the Campbell farm in Bethany. Cane Ridge church stands where it was originally located, which adds greatly to its historic interest. It is very much like it was in the beginning, save only the old logs have been covered with weatherboarding, and the interior modernized, but the old house is still intact and close by is the grounds where the body of Barton W. Stone and other saints sleep. This old building and these monuments that mark these graves will soon go to ruin unless some provision is made to preserve them. Hence this appeal is made to a grateful brotherhood to raise a sum of money, the proceeds from which are to be used to preserve this historic building and care for these monuments marking the graves of the saints who sleep there, some of whom were charter members of old Cane Ridge church.

The amount of money raised will be put into the hands of trustees to be selected by the Christian churches in Bourbon county, to be invested in a substantial security, the income from which will be used as indicated. Mr. J. W. Thomas, of Paris, is chairman of the Subscription Committee, to whom all pledges are to be made and subscriptions to be paid, which money will be turned over to the trustees as soon as they are selected. For the convenience of any who care to have part in this labor of love the following subscription blank is placed here for your use. Please sign and give to Mr. Thomas:

SUBSCRIPTION BLANK
For the purpose of raising a fund for the preservation of old Cane Ridge church and caring for the grounds and the monument of Barton W. Stone and others who are buried there, I hereby promise to pay on demand $..... to J. W. Thomas, Chairman of Cane Ridge Subscription Committee. (Signed,
